Hi, over the past few years I've collected links to many free online live music sources, with 10000s of live gigs & sessions you can watch or listen to for FREE.

You can access them via my theotherside1 free music website at <http://theotherside1.co.uk/music/index.php>

On this site I've placed links to bands & artists I like, though the websites linked to in my posts contain 1000s more artists.

You're sure to find many of your favourites.

I recommend you visit my site and start by doing a search for your favourite artists.

If you don't find the artists you're looking for, work your way through the posts on my site, clicking each link, and you'll find the source sites, which you can then search for your favourite artists.

It's well worth your time !

There's enough free live music out there for a new concert every night for the rest of your life !

If you're interested in buying rare records & cds , musical instruments , recording equipment or anything music related please visit :

<http://theotherside1.com>

Also checkout some of my music blogs at above site.

Enjoy !

PS. You may pass this pdf document on to your family & friends that like music, and ask them to do the same. They'll be delighted you did !
